

Is it really worth giving up an entire weekend?

If you were alive when Jesus walked the earth, and you were given the opportunity to hear Him speak, would it be worth giving up a couple of days to do it? What if you had the chance to sit down and actually talk with Him: ask Him questions, hear His answers, and just enjoy His company. Could you honestly say “I don’t have the time”? What if afterwards you could pick up the conversation anytime, anyplace, indefinitely? Wouldn’t that be worth it? That is what you’re being offered. The opportunity to become a friend of Jesus.

God's promises to those who hear His voice

Deuteronomy 28:1-14 offers an amazing picture of what God has in store for you when you hear and obey His voice.

"...your children will be blessed..."

Imagine how much better a parent you'll be when you apply the voice of God to raising your children. Imagine how much better your children will be when they learn to hear from God themselves! You can improve your family's peace, joy and harmony beyond your wildest dreams by simply bringing the voice of God to the center of your home.

"...your business and your work will be blessed..."

Imagine how much more you could accomplish if God wrote your "To Do List." He will tell you what you should and should not do today, and His priorities are never wrong. He will give you specific counsel for your own unique occupation, and bring you to a higher level of skill and efficiency than you could ever achieve by yourself.

"...surplus of prosperity...freedom from debt...profitable investments..."

When you hear and obey the voice of God, He will open new avenues of prosperity in your life. He will show you creative ways to bring in His overflowing financial blessing, which "you will not have room enough to contain" (Mal. 3:10).

"...victory over your enemies (satan)..."

Do you know what the key is to victory in spiritual warfare? The voice of God. Don't waste another minute praying your prayers. Release the full power of God by letting Him direct your prayers. He will give you the revelation you need to defeat the enemy, rather than just do battle.

"...raised up to positions of leadership and authority..."

The Lord has destined that those who hear His voice will be leaders of men. His desire is to see the righteous rule over the unrighteous. The voice of God is the key to effective leadership, giving you the wisdom, confidence and authority to lead, and thus giving the people a desire to follow.

Isn't this all just basic "prayer stuff"?

"Your manual on Communion With God is very, very rich and wonderful. I am going to study personally with it. I praise God for your ministry and wonderful contribution to the body of Christ."

— Dr. Paul Yonggi Cho, Senior Pastor of Yoido Full Gospel Church, the world's largest church (with 750,000 members) in Seoul, South Korea

What others are saying

"Oh my, I am speechless...my life has been totally, totally transformed. He is such a wonderful, wonderful God. My days—and nights are now filled with His presence. Thank you for your service to Him, Mr. Virkler."

— Amy

"Communion With God by Mark and Patti Virkler has dramatically changed my prayer life. I have found I can will to dialogue with Christ on a daily basis, and I do. I believe this inspired approach to be absolutely essential to the growth of every serious Christian. I further believe Communion With God is an excellent example of the uniquely powerful way God is reaching out to His people today."

— Dr. Richard Watson, Oral Roberts University

"Through the adventure into the practices of journaling, vision, and unabashed praise I have come to feel closer to God than ever I have in my years of one-sided prayer and self-righteous appearances in church on Sunday. Communion with Him is indescribably more rewarding than the lopsided prayer directed to a far away God to which I was accustomed."

— Jessica Burton

"I attended a Communion With God seminar which changed my life. The revelation that I could hear the voice of God was truly amazing, it took me beyond a doctrine to an intimate experience."

— Rev. Robert O. Marshall, Senior Pastor of Tableland Christian Faith Centre, Assistant Superintendent of the Assemblies of God, Far Northern District, Queensland, Australia

"When I heard Mark's material in the early 80's, it quadrupled my ability to hear God's voice, taking a lot of the guess work out."

— Rev. Dale Bolton, Senior Pastor of Thornhill Vineyard, Ontario, Canada

"Dialogue with God is worth a million dollars to any Christian who is serious about the issue of hearing the voice of God. Mark's teaching on this issue profoundly impacted my life."

— Rev. John Arnott, Senior Pastor of Toronto Airport Christian Fellowship

"I went from hearing God speak to me once in a while to hearing Him not just in my journaling times but even throughout the rest of the day. What a difference this has made."

— Andrew Steck

"Already I am in awe of what God has said to me as I have been attempting to tune into that spontaneity. I wonder now how it is that we even attempt to be Christians without learning how to hear His voice. I am so thankful that you took the time to experiment with God and have been faithful to the task of passing on what God has shown you."

— Lynda Russett

"My journey to God has now begun and [sharing] love with Him makes my days so much happier. Walking with Jesus no longer seems a burden like it did before, with so many rules. Going to my journal seems like a retreat and I look forward to that 'special time.'"

— Jean Nichol

Isn't prayer supposed to be boring?

What could be more exciting than having an extended two-way conversation with the God of the universe? Sure, listening to yourself talk to Him, with no expectation of ever hearing anything back can be boring. But through this seminar you will learn the four keys to effortless communication with God. You will be taken step-by-step through the process of quieting yourself down, fixing your eyes on Jesus, tuning to spontaneity, and writing what He says to you. It is simple enough for a child to do, yet it is something that most Christians go their whole lives without ever trying.
