

What is an Impact Weekend?

Steve teaches scriptural principles, always with an emphasis on practical application. His goal is that people go home not only with more understanding, but more faith and tangible experience than when they arrived. He does this through demonstration and activation/participation. During an Impact Weekend, Steve teaches, then provides opportunities for all participants to immediately engage in healing ministry – he takes people out into the community to pray for the sick, share the Gospel and minister to the poor.

Typical Schedule:

*Steve is flexible on schedule and duration

Friday PM – Teaching
Saturday AM – Steve leads participants in a short outreach into your community
Saturday PM – Teaching; 15 minute explanation of what Steve does with Impact Nations (offering)
Sunday AM – Teaching

Other Speaking Opportunities:

Steve is also available for individual services and conferences, and also leads healing conferences, justice conferences, conducts leadership training, and teaches on a variety of scriptural themes.

Favorite Topics:

Understanding the Kingdom of God

How do we participate in what God is doing? How do we activate the Kingdom? Discover what the Kingdom looks like and the way of the King.

Healing

Learn a simple, but powerful model to see healing released in the community and the church – keys to increasing healing, how to see healing happen through everyone and transition into a bigger paradigm of healing.

A New Understanding of the Gospel

How big is the Gospel? What does it entail? Understand the Powers That Be: an integrated approach to spiritual warfare. Gain a greater understanding of the scope of salvation and God's passion for justice and hatred of injustice.

Justice

What keeps the church from actively pursuing justice? What role do believers play in rescuing the poor, weak, and overlooked? Discover justice as central to the heart of God and its saving, healing, restorative power.

Expectations:

Steve asks that his traveling expenses be covered. He is happy to be billeted in a home or stay in a hotel. Honorariums for his teaching are voluntary. He does ask for the opportunity to give a short presentation (about 15 minutes) about what he does with Impact Nations and to take an offering for the poor (through Impact Nations).

Endorsement:

"Steve Stewart is one of the persons that heaven would call 'the friend of God.' You too will be able to see the heart of a man who loves God, and is loved by God, expressed in powerful concepts, spoken with passion and wisdom. Impact Weekends reveal Steve's solid commitment to the Bible and firm belief that Christians, the Church and Christianity should emphasize what the Bible emphasizes: the Kingdom, healing, and justice."
